LEWANA M. HARRIS ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

SEEKING TO BE ELECTED AS THE 1ST WOMAN OF COLOR TO DISTRICT 6, CITY COUNCIL TULSA, OKLAHOMA

Tulsa, Oklahoma---

To make community and organization a cut above the rest, has been a goal of Lewana Harris. As a human relations professional, Lewana is committed to encouraging, and empowering others to activate their full potential. Her love for community and developing people is a few of the many reasons she is the best candidate for District 6.

Lewana Harris was born and raised in Tulsa, Oklahoma and serves as a senior consultant with a global organizational consulting firm. Combining strategy and talent to drive superior performance for clients allows Lewana to maximize her love for people. Prior to her current position, she was employed with a Fortune 500 oil/gas company as developmental instructor with the Organizational Development team. She also held the role of probation and parole officer for Tulsa County District Community Corrections and was awarded for her leadership by being endowed as Tulsa County District Officer of the Year in 2011, Officer of the Quarter 2011 and Officer of the Month - March 2011. She also served as a Pretrial Release Officer for Fulton County Superior Court in Atlanta, Georgia and is currently an active leader in her community as a speaker, group facilitator, and networker.

Lewana has served on the boards of Tulsa Area Human Resources Association (TAHRA), Tristesse Grief Center and was the 2020 President of Association for Talent Development (ATD) Tulsa Chapter. Lewana has volunteered her time with various non-profit organizations, such as Resonance, an organization that helps women rise above their past, and believe in a brighter future. She currently serves on the boards of KIPP Tulsa College Preparatory School, Oklahoma Center for Nonprofits and Tulsa Global District Committee. Additionally, Lewana is a graduate of LEAD North Tulsa and a 2022 Graduate of African American Leadership Academy.

Lewana's areas of expertise will prove to be an asset if elected to serve as a council member. She is skilled in leadership development, resolution training, managing diversity, stress management crisis training, conflict management, emotional intelligence, and organizational leadership.

Lewana is a proud graduate of Clark Atlanta University earning a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice. She also earned her Master's degree in Human Relations with a focus in Organizational Studies from the University of Oklahoma, where she maintained a grade point average of 4.0. Lewana is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, and resides in Tulsa with her three children, Skyler, Madison and Bryce.

Support Lewana on this new journey to create change for the future.
